

Come and Join the SOGO Conservatory Orchestra for a Rehearsal and... maybe the rest of the season!

YOU are invited to attend a SOGO Conservatory Orchestra rehearsal!

SOGO will soon begin preparations for our second and third concerts of the season with rehearsals and performances led by outstanding conductors and highly skilled teaching artists. First up is our Messiah Sing-along in December, and then there will be season concerts at the Washington Center for the Performing Arts in March and May.

Join us for a free Side-By-Side rehearsal on Sunday, November 11, 5:00-7:15 PM, held at Calvary Chapel Church (919 Division Street NW Olympia, 98501) to enjoy all the fun and musical enlightenment and see if you would like to join us for the remainder of the season. We ask that you please arrive 15 minutes early and bring a music stand.

The Conservatory Orchestra is offered for students of advanced high school ability and focuses on the artistic performance of the standard orchestral repertoire. Conservatory brass members also participate in the SOGO Brass Choir.

Rehearsals are Sundays 5pm-7:15pm, and concerts are as follows:

- Monday, December 16th; 7pm with dress rehearsal before
- Sunday, March 3; 4pm with dress rehearsal before
- Sunday, May 19; 4pm with dress rehearsal before

Check out our website - studentorchestras.org for information on the rest of the season.

To join SOGO The cost if you decide to join us after the Sunday, November 11th rehearsal is $385 for the remainder of the season plus a $45 placement audition fee.

Please do not hesitate to email studentorchestras@gmail.com with any questions. We hope you will join us and look forward to welcoming you!

Sincerely,

Cameron May
Music Director
